CSBS GIVING CIRCLES

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.” - Margaret Mead

A giving circle gives individuals the opportunity to combine their gifts as a group and decide where they want that money to go. Our giving circles support a variety of priorities within the College of Social & Behavioral Science such as scholarships, fellowships, programs and events.

Starting a giving circle is simple.
To create your own giving circle, follow the steps below:

1. Gather a few friends, colleagues, family members and people who share a similar passion
2. Establish a name for your giving circle
3. Determine the size of your giving circle and each member’s financial contribution
4. Find out how members plan to give and if it will be part of a year-long commitment
5. Decide what the group’s funding focus is, who will benefit from the funds, and how the funds will be collected
6. Activate your giving circle by contacting Rob Hunsaker at rob.hunsaker@utah.edu
