The College of Social and Behavioral Science will host its annual Student Research Day on April 25, 2013. Both graduate and undergraduate students in the college will be given the opportunity to showcase original research projects using poster presentations. A panel of faculty judges will evaluate the projects. Three cash prizes will be awarded for best posters in the graduate research and undergraduate research categories.

First Prize: $250
Second Prize: $150
Third Prize: $100

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Students must notify the college of their intention to participate by email no later than 5 pm, April 5th, 2012, stating:

- Your name, email address, and primary departmental or program affiliation.
- The name of your advisor and his/her primary departmental or program affiliation.
- Poster title and list of author names and institutional affiliations.
- A 150 word abstract describing the research sent as an attached Word document (please, no embedded tables or figures).

Students must be the primary producer of the work. The research must be original work. Posters prepared as part of a class project or already presented at conferences are welcome.

Please send these submissions to dean@csbs.utah.edu. Please note that the abstracts will be posted on the college website. If you have concerns regarding copyright or patent issues, you should consult your advisor. Unless we are informed otherwise, the full title and abstract will be printed.

POSTER SPECIFICATIONS

The presentation must be in the form of a poster and no larger than 4ft by 5 ft. Tape will be provided for hanging the posters. Posters will be displayed from Thursday, April 25 to Friday, May 3. Details of the event will be announced in the near future.
